Dr. Eric S. Vallone

NOVAMED ASSOCIATES
CONCIERGE MEDICINE

INTERNAL MEDICINE

Dr. Eric S. Vallone is honored to be selected for inclusion in Northern Virginia Magazine's Top Doctors 2021 issue.

Dr. Vallone joined NOVAMED Associates in 2014, bringing with him more than 13 years of clinical experience. He has been grateful for the opportunities that practicing concierge medicine has given him, most notably the numerous advantages it has offered to his patients, including his ability to practice medicine free of time constraints, same day appointment availability for urgent or acute matters, a smaller panel of patients, and an attentive, professional and welcoming staff.

He is a graduate of Georgetown University School of Medicine, and he completed his residency at Georgetown University Medical Center in 2000 and was selected to serve as Chief Resident in Medicine from 2000-2001 with Georgetown University Hospital. Dr. Vallone is a Clinical Assistant Professor of Medicine at Georgetown University School of Medicine and he enjoys teaching the next generation of physicians.

Dr. Vallone continues to be highly involved with the Georgetown University alumni association, serving on the Medical Alumni Board and the Association's Board of Governors as an Active Senator. He also volunteers as a Primary Care Mentor for medical students and as an interviewer for applicants to both the undergraduate and medical schools.

He has been inducted as a Fellow in the American College of Physicians and has been selected numerous times by his patients for inclusion in Washington Consumers' Checkbook as a Top-Rated Primary Care Physician. His clinical interests include medical problem-solving and evidence-based preventative care.
